A Message from The Senior Class Advisor:

Dear Class of 2009:

I have had the bonor of watching you grow and develop into fine young adults from the day you entered the doors of Minnechaug. After four short years, the doors of Minnechaug will be closing behind you; do not look at this with sadness for with those doors closing, new ones will open. tt has been within these safe and comfortable classrooms and hallways that you have been able to make mistakes and learn from those mistakes, which in the end has only helped you to discover your true self. Many of you have learned that being true to your self is more important than being true to the image that others have created for you, while others are still learning. You have all grown and learned at a different pace, but nonetheless you have done both during your brief four years at Minnechaug. It is your time to carry the lessons you learned at the small blueberry patch we call Minnechaug into a much bigger pasture. This bigger pasture may not be as comfortable and secure, but it is the triumphs and trials that you experienced here that have prepared you for all the obstacles that lie ahead. Do not be discouraged if some doors are closed off to you or if you enter a door and do not find what you are looking for. Eventually, the right door will open and you will stand triumphant once again. You are part of a legacy and have left a positive and lasting impact in the history of Minnechaug. It is your turn to now leave behind the familiarity and security found within Minnechaug, and discover a whole new world and a whole new you.

Remember the lessons that were learned and the transformation that you made. As Dr. Seuss once wrote, "You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. You are the guy who'll decide where to go."

Congtatulations on a job well done. I wish all of you continued growth and happiness in your future endeavors.

Mrs. O'Sullivan

"Excellence First, Learning Always"

HWRSD

Hampden-Wilbraham Regional School District

Message from the Superintendent

I am pleased to send this letter of congratulations to you as you embark on life's journey outside the halls of Minnechaug. You have distinguished yourselves as a strong class in all facets of your high school experience. You have made wonderful contributions to community service, excellent academic progress, and outstanding achievements on the athletic fields and in the arts. You have done it all!

Your yearbook theme, "Some Assembly Required," brought back memories of my time as a young father on Christmas Eve putting together toys for my children. I can vividly remember working in to the wee hours of Christmas morning trying to put together toys only to find leftover parts and extra screws, nuts and bolts. My story is analogous to your theme in that your years in school have required some assembly, and yet as you leave here, things are still not quite complete.

You will soon enter college, the workforce or the armed services where you will finally put the finishing touches on your life's preparations. I am confident that "all the pieces" will fall neatly in to place in time and you will be successful in the years ahead. You have my best wishes as you leave the Minnechaug community.

Go Falcons!

Minnechaug Regional High School

Message from the Principal

We have all purchased something - a game, some type of equipment, a piece of furniture - that has that dreaded message, "Some assembly required." The assembly directions are recognizable, but not necessarily comprehensible. "Place Tab A into Slot B." "Connect the ratchet assembly to the cable frame." "Place the D-Clip into the anchor pin." The directions can make your head spin. Your frustration might be compounded by the diagram and the number of parts that accompany the directions. I remember being convinced, for example, that the diagram and parts list that came with my kids' swing set were actually intended for a NASA space shuttle. What an ordeal.

Imagine, however, having to assemble something that did not come with a diagram or a complete set of parts. Yet in assembling our lives this is exactly what is happening. Teachers, parents, friends have given you many of the directions, parts and tools that you will need to construct your lives. Yet, you don't know what the finished product will look like and you do not have all the parts. New parts and new tools will be given to you in the years ahead, as you meet new friends, new teachers and colleagues. Through it all, you will continue to assemble your life. I am confident, however, that you will be surprised and pleased with the final product.

Best wishes to you as you assemble your lives as graduates of Minnechaug Regional High School.

Sincerely,
Mr. O'Shea

GRADUATION 2009

Messages We Missed Presented Here with our Sincere Apologies

You are in our lives for a few seasons. Graduation comes. Off you go making your own way. Love carries you along. You land somewhere you have never been. You find your place among those who have lived their lives to the fullest.

Katie, even at 2 you were looking onward and upward. We couldn't be more proud of who you are and what you've done. Keep reaching for the stars in whatever you do.

Love always,
Mom, Daddy, and Monica

Paige: Set ambitious aspirations, work hard, be kind, love your family and friends. Have fun! Discover the world; you will never regret it. Congratulations.

Love,
Dad
